Good morning, Yunah!

Yes, you may have your guests for the week. This serves as approval that supersedes the wording in the contract. How many people are staying and what are their names?

Good morning Jason !

I have signed contract ready to go.

Just to confirm that I will have guests stay over at your property when they visit me for a week. On the rental rules, it says you don't allow anyone to stay over other than me. Should we change that clause or leave it as it is? I think we are in the agreement but want to confirm.

Thanks !
